PALMER PARK WINTERFEST & DOGGY FASHION PARADE

Date/Time

Feb 23, 2013
12:00 PM until 04:00 PM

Description

Enjoy an afternoon of FREE family fun at Detroit's Palmer Park: horse and carriage rides through the woods, hiking, doggie fashion parade, arts and adventures for kids, cross-country skiing (bring skis if there is snow!), a warm-up tent with live music with Hollands, refreshments from the Green Zebra truck, bonfires, and winter surprises. Read more at peopleforpalmerpark.org

Canine to Five is donating free daycare coupons to all dogs! Other prizes for creative costumes, behavior and more (costumes are not required, but they are fun!) Get your dog's fashion attire updated for a run on the Palmer Park Red Carpet around Lake Francis — Pre-register you dog and read more at: peopleforpalmerpark.org/calendar/winterfest-doggie-fashion-parade/

Warm up in the PFPP tent to some great live music from HOLLANDS, a Detroit-connected, Brooklyn-based electronic folk-orchestral rock duo with John-Paul Norpoth on vocals and guitar, and Jannina Barefield Norpoth on electric violin. Visit their facebook page -
